

Universal Periodic Review of the Republic of India
United Nations Human Rights Council
Individual Report Submitted By
Quill Foundation, New Delhi, India

November 2022

Date of Submission: 31 March 2022

Quill Foundation is an autonomous institution engaging in research and advocacy in India. Quills' work revolves around pertinent issues of human rights, justice, and equity faced by the marginalized of India, especially Muslims, Adivasis, Dalits, women, sexual minorities and persons with disabilities. Currently, the Delhi based Human Rights Program (HRP) focuses on civil and political rights violence. It undertakes research and advocacy on the myriad forms of state violence both in acts of omission and commission: counter terrorism, extrajudicial killings, hate crimes, torture, policing, and the de-legitimization of citizenship.

Key Themes: Minority Rights; Majoritarianism; Ethnic Violence; Detention; Hate Speech; Citizenship Rights; Counter-Terrorism and Human Rights;

Summary of Contents:

- Introduction
- Legally Sanctioned Persecution
- Fundamental Freedoms, Right to Life & Liberty and Security of the Person
- Hate Speeches and Communalism Against Muslims in India
- Violence Against Muslim Women
- Hate Crimes Against Muslims in North East India
- Socio-Economic Exclusion of Muslims
- Recommendations: Reform of Domestic Legislation; Addressing Accountability and Impunity; Rehabilitation of Victims and Survivors; Reform of the National Human Rights Commission