

Submission to the 4th Cycle of the Universal Periodic Review of Japan

On the issues of Japanese Military Sexual Slavery

(“comfort women”)

July 14 2022

The Korean Council for Justice and Remembrance for the Issues of Military Sexual Slavery by Japan (hereinafter the Korean Council, formerly The Korean Council for the Women Drafted for Military Sexual Slavery by Japan) is a non-governmental organization based in Seoul, Republic of Korea. Since 1990, the Korean Council has been working for the resolution of the Japanese military sexual slavery issue and the promotion of human rights and peace through campaigns such as the Wednesday Demonstration for Resolution of the Japanese Military Sexual Slavery Issue, the establishment of the Statue of Peace and War and Women’s Human Rights Museum, and various domestic and international campaigns.
