

Joint Submission by: Forum of Egyptian Independent Human Rights Organizations

Related to: Egypt's UPR

UPR session: 20th session of UPR (October-November 2014)

This report presents the collective account of the 19 Egyptian Human Rights organizations members of the Forum of Independent Egyptian Human Rights NGOs<sup>1</sup> regarding the state of human rights in Egypt over the past four years. Due to the limited space allowed, this report will focus primarily on the most important indicators which illustrate the recurrent and systematic patterns of human rights violations seen during Egypt's transitional period following January 25, 2011.

<sup>1</sup>Cairo Institute for Human Rights Studies, Arab Network for Human Rights Information, Andalus institute for tolerance and anti-violence studies, Appropriate Communications Techniques for Development (ACT), Arab Organization for Penal Reform, Association for Freedom of Thought and Expression, Egyptian Association for Community Participation Enhancement, Egyptian Coalition for the Rights of the Child, Egyptian Center for Economic and Social Rights, Egyptian Foundation for Advancement of the Childhood Condition (EFACC), Egyptian Initiative for Personal Rights, Egyptian Women's Legal Assistance, Hisham Mubarak Law Center, Human Rights Association for the Assistance of Prisoners, Human Rights Legal Assistance Group, Misryoun Against Religious Discrimination (MARED), Nazra for Feminist Studies, New Woman Foundation, Land Center for Human Rights.