

Joint submission on the Rights of Women
Universal Periodic Review
23rd session of the Working group - November 2015
Lebanon

This joint report prepared by a group of civil society organizations in Lebanon aims at evaluating the achieved progress of the women rights on the ground in the last four and a half years, on the basis of the recommendations accepted by the Lebanese government that committed to implement them along with other recommendations requested by the civil society in Lebanon.

Drafting NGOs (by alphabetical order):

Abaad- Resource Center for Gender Equality, Arab Institute for Human Rights- Lebanon, Arab NGO Network for Development, Kafa- Enough Violence and Exploitation, Lebanese Women Democratic Gathering, the Democratic Forum for women in transitional societies–Emna forum Lebanon, the National Committee for the Follow up of Women’s Issues and Working Women League in Lebanon.

Supported by:

Development Action without Borders/Naba’a, Frontiers Ruwad Association, Geneva Institute for Human Rights, Independent Lebanese Association, Jinan University, Lebanese Committees of relatives of the missing and kidnapped, Lebanese Association for Democratic Elections, Lebanese Foundation for Permanent Civil Peace, Lebanon Support, Palestinian Organization for Human Rights and the International Center for Transitional Justice (ICTJ)- Lebanon.

The ANNEX includes contact details of all Drafting and Supporting NGOs.

For further information contact:

Lebanese Women Democratic Gathering
Address: Karkon Drouz, Alma’aniyi School, Hammoud and Rayyes Bldg, 1st floor
Tel: 00-961 1 370120
Fax: 00-961 1 370189
E-mail: rdfl@inco.com.lb
manarz@rdflwomen.org