The International Centre for Trade Union Rights (ICTUR) was founded in 1987 in order to defend, extend, and raise awareness of trade union rights and their violations worldwide. ICTUR was founded in response to 'an attack on trade union rights by transnational employers' and 'to take up the struggle for liberation from neo-colonialist and transnational corporation exploitation'. ICTUR is a network of unions, lawyers and human rights organisations.

ICTUR has consultative (roster) status with the UN ECOSOC and it is accredited to the ILO Special List of INGOs, since 1993. ICTUR's main activities include monitoring labour rights, letter writing, trial observations, research and publishing. ICTUR provides information to international human rights processes and assists trade unions in this work. ICTUR publishes: International Union Rights journal (since 1993, 4 editions per year); the World Map of Freedom of Association (5th edition, 2017); and the reference book Trade Unions of the World (7th edition, 2016).
