ARTICLE 19: Global Campaign for Free Expression (ARTICLE 19) (established 1987, in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council since 1991) is an independent human rights organisation that works around the world to protect and promote the right to freedom of expression and the right to freedom of information. It takes its name from Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. ARTICLE 19 monitors threats to freedom of expression in different regions of the world, as well as national and global trends, and develops long-term strategies to address them, and advocates for the implementation of the highest standards of freedom of expression, nationally and globally.

Katiba Institute (KI) was established in 2011 to promote the understanding and implementation of Kenya's 2010 Constitution. We work all around Kenya on projects that focus on understanding the Constitution, implementation of the Constitution, research on topical Constitutional issues and education on the Constitution. KI has established itself as a key organization within the civil society sector in regard to constitutional matters.
