

Ending torture, seeking justice for survivors

The Redress Trust (REDRESS)

87 Vauxhall Walk

London SE11 5HJ

United Kingdom

Tel: +44 (0)20 7793 1777

Webpage: www.redress.org

Contact: chris@redress.org

Submission to the Human Rights Council's Universal Periodic Review Working Group regarding the Review of the Republic of Lithuania

12 July 2021

COVER PAGE

INFORMATION ABOUT THE ORGANISATION MAKING THIS SUBMISSION:

REDRESS is an international human rights NGO based in the United Kingdom and The Netherlands with a mandate to deliver justice and reparation for survivors of torture, challenge impunity for perpetrators, and advocate for legal and policy reforms to combat torture. REDRESS was established in 1992 and has been in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council since 2011. REDRESS represents Mr. Mustafa al-Hawsawi in relation to his claims outside the United States of America arising from his torture and enforced disappearance in the CIA's Rendition, Detention and Interrogation Programme.