

CONGREGATION OF OUR LADY OF CHARITY OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

www.buonpastoreint.com

El Salvador

Joint submission to the 20th session of the UPR

October/November 2014

SUBMITTING STAKEHOLDERS:

This submission covers two NGOs with Special ECOSOC status:
Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd and VIVAT International

CONTACT PERSONS: Marta Iris López C and Gema Abigail Belloso Martínez
Address: Colonia Providencia, final Calle Sevilla, Apdo. 06-120 San Salvador, El Salvador
Tel: 503-2270 0619 Fax: 503-2270 3123

NGO REPRESENTATIVES GENEVA: Hedwig JÖHL and Margaret LYNCH
Soeurs du Bon Pasteur, Rue de la Servette 34, CH-1202 Genève, T/F +41 22 733 72 24
hedwigjoehl@gmail.com , magsrgs@yahoo.com

KEYWORDS:

1. Stalking and extortion gang
2. Situation of migrant women
3. Domestic workers
4. Women working in Maquiladoras (Commercial companies)
5. Impunity
6. Re-militarisation of the security forces
7. Introducing and strengthening initiatives to address inequalities
8. El Mozote Legal Case

NOTE ON THE NGO ORGANIZATIONS:

The Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd is an international organization of religious women, present in 73 countries (in El Salvador since 1924). The Organisation works for Economic justice on behalf of women and children, who are forced to migrate for financial and political reasons and also with victims of human trafficking. ECOSOC status since 1996.

VIVAT International reaches out to persons and peoples living in poverty of any kind, and shares in their efforts for the restoration of well-being, dignity and freedom.

We promote human rights, sustainable development, understanding and harmony between peoples, cultures, classes, and religions, and the creation of a world society, We engage with local communities to facilitate the participation of all.

We work for ecological sustainability, the protection of biodiversity, and the preservation of the richness of the planet for future generations.